About My Artwork

I have been drawing for as long as I can remember. I graduated from a technical graphic arts program at 17 years old in West Palm Beach, Florida, where I worked as a graphic artist.

A calling to be a nurse started a nursing career that spanned over 20 years. During which I continued with my artwork, practicing with various media. When I retired from nursing, I returned to my first love drawing and painting, taking many local art classes.

I have studied at The Loft and The Workhouse Arts Center. I began my own Etsy Shop - Green Lady Art- in January 2021, selling my watercolor art prints and note cards with over three hundred items sold to date. Some of you may have visited me at The Workhouse Arts Center Community Market over the summer besides other local art and craft shows.

I am thrilled to be a new artist member in The Artists' Undertaking Gallery, where I look to continue to grow as an artist and contribute to the wonderful variety the gallery provides.

Watercolors entice me to paint, the glow that watercolors offer is so lovely. I use white space to define my subjects and highlight their translucent quality, which is so iconic of this medium. My focus is on botanical and wildlife illustrations because nature lends such beauty and variety.
